NEVADA WELCOME CENTERS LOG ON TO INFORMATION SUPERHIGHWAY

The Nevada Department of Transportation is logging on to the information superhighway with new, free wireless Internet access at the Primm, West Wendover and Mesquite state welcome centers and Wadsworth rest stop.

Available 24 hours, users simply log on from their wireless-capable device such as PDA or laptop while parked within 1,000 feet of the centers. After establishing a free sign-on, a homepage links to the NDOT nevadadot.com site and other important travel information. Use is free for the first 30 minutes. Extendable 30-minute sessions and access filters to prohibited sites prevent misuse.

The locations on Nevada's major I-80 and I-15 thoroughfares provide the vital travel information to visitors and trucks entering the state's foremost north, south, east and west access points, all vital tourism and commerce lifelines. Interstates next to the rest areas see up to 50% truck traffic.
